Kerala's Stunning Backwaters

Day 02 – Cochin

Chinese Fishing Nets At Cochin Harbour

Cochin

Cochin is a wonderfully cosmopolitan Indian city with a multi-cultural history. It also has one of the country's largest ports. One of the great attractions of Cochin is the wonderful Syrian Christian cuisine that has evolved from a fusion of Arabic and Keralan cooking styles. Local restaurants also serve some of the best seafood to be found in India.

The bazaars of Mattancherry and the Old Quarter are well worth a visit for their quaint shops selling everything from wooden carvings to bedspreads, from ornate mirrors to exotic spices. The Pardesi Synagogue (1568) was the focus of the famous Jewish community of Cochin, although only a handful of families remain today. Nearby is the Mattancherry Palace, which was home to the Verma Kings and today is a fine museum with some of the finest frescoes in India on display.

An evening Kathakali Dance Performance will allow you to sample one of the oldest theatre forms in the world in which dancers take various roles traditionally based on themes from Hindu mythology.

Day 03 – Cochin

Frescoes At The Mattancherry Palace

Fort Cochin

The famous and photogenic Chinese Fishing Nets are built along the northern shores of Fort Cochin. Around the Old Parade Ground there are some lovely boutique hotels converted from old mansions of spice merchants. Narrow streets radiate from here in all directions full of crumbling and interesting historic buildings.

Cochin also features the oldest church in India: the Church of St Francis, built in 1503 by the Portuguese (it briefly housed the remains of Vasco de Gama, who died here), and is now used by the Anglican Church of South India.

Day 04 – Munnar

On the Road To Munnar

Munnar

The Munnar Hills are situated at an altitude of 5000 to 8000 ft above sea level. This beautiful hill station was once a summer resort of the British Government in South India. Sprawling tea plantations, picture book towns and long winding lanes make this a popular hill resort.

The high ranges of Munnar are ideal for trekking. Top Station is a wonderful place to catch some fantastic views of the valleys below. Munnar also has the highest peak south of the Himalayas, called Anamudi, which towers 8841 feet over the Western Ghats.

Eravikulam National Park is the last refuge of the Nilgiri Tahr. Half the world population of this rare mountain goat is found here, which is fast becoming extinct.

Day 05 – Thekkady

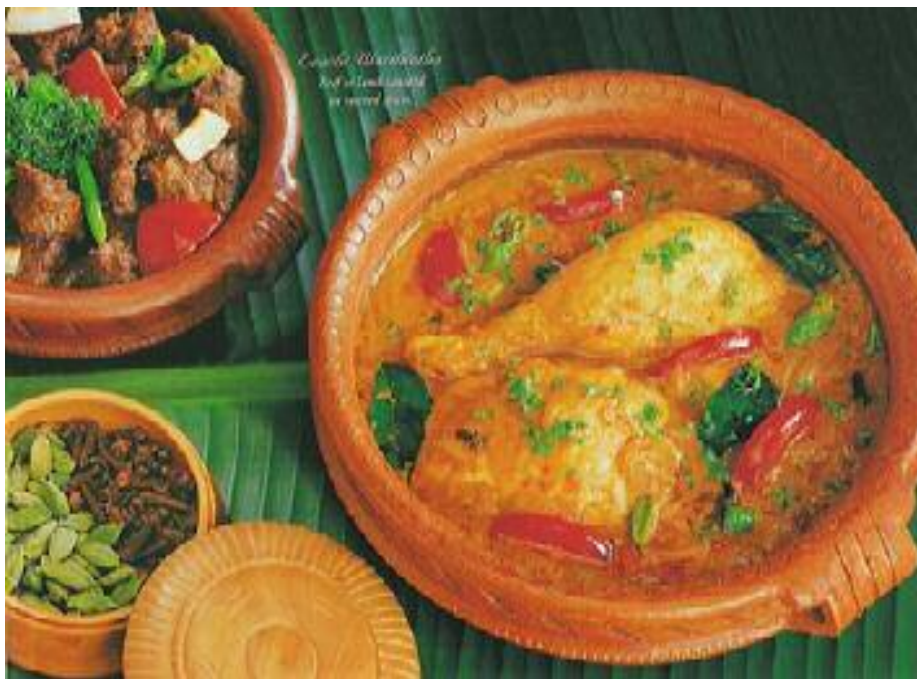

Kerala Spices

Trips To Spice Villages

Thekkady is the centre of the spice growing area of Kerala, and the aroma of spices are everywhere. Numerous Spice Plantation Villages have guided tours to identify various spice plants and even cookery demos using spices. At Kumily Market there is a huge cardamom auction and shops selling different types of spices.

Day 06 – Thekkady

Wild Elephant At Periyar Lake Wildlife Reserve

The Periyar Lake National Park

Set high in the ranges of the Western Ghats is the Periyar National Park and Tiger Reserve. Within its 777 square km of deciduous and evergreen forest roam some 750 Elephants that can be observed on a 2-hour Safari Boat Trip around the Periyar Lake that lies at the heart of the sanctuary.

Apart from Elephants, other animals to be seen at Periyar include Gaur (Indian Bison), Wild Pigs, Sambar (Elk), Barking Deer, Mouse Deer, Dhole (Indian Wild Dog) and very rarely, a Tiger.

There are now, an estimated 40 Tigers and a similar number of Leopards in the reserve. Four species of primates are found at Periyar - the rare Lion-tailed Macaque, the Nilgiri Langur, Common Langur and Bonnet Macaque. Periyar also happens to be the habitat of the elusive Nilgiri Tahr, which is rarely to be seen.

Day 07 – Kumarakom

The Backwaters At Kumarakom

Kumarakom

Kumarakom is a unique backwater destination situated on the banks of the Vembanad Lake. It is an unbelievably beautiful paradise of mangrove forests, emerald green paddy fields, coconut groves interspersed with enchanting waterways and canals adorned with white lilies.

As the monsoon winds bring rain to the shores of Vembanad Lake, Kumarakom is transformed into a rich fertile land. The streams, lagoons, brooks break their banks and provide nourishment to springs and shrubs that sprout from every available space.

Day 08 – Kumarakom

Exploring Narrow Canals By Boat

Kumarakom

The village of Kumarakom is a cluster of little islands on the Vembanad Lake. Kumarakom's soil is extremely fertile due to the proximity of the water source, this has resulted in the growth of a wide variety of mangroves and coconut trees.

Located on the eastern side of Vembanad Lake, Kumarakom Bird Sanctuary stretches over an area of 14 acres and is home to a large variety of birds and also provides shelter to migratory birds, such as Siberian Storks.

Day 09 – Day 10 Rice Boat

View Of Deluxe Bedroom And Backwaters Riceboat Journey

By Private Rice Boat Through Kerala's Backwaters

Rice Boats

A boat journey through Kerala's Kuttanad Country, a 75km stretch of shimmering waterways and dense tropical greenery wedged between the hills and the sea is one of the most Memorable Experiences Any Traveller Could Have In India.

Kettuvallams of olden times were rice and spice barges that used to transport harvests from Kuttanad to Cochin for sale. Many of these traditional craft have been converted into long houseboats with all the creature comforts of a good hotel including furnished bedrooms, modern bathrooms, cozy living rooms and even balconies for angling.

Each boat has a fully equipped kitchen and an experienced cook to prepare authentic Kerala cuisine with sea food specialties and fresh vegetables.

The Backwaters

The Backwaters are one of the unique attractions of Kerala, a chain of canals extending about 1500 kms incorporating a network of 44 rivers, lagoons and lakes.

The canals and lagoons are lined by swaying palm trees and Chinese Fishing Nets, cooled by a gentle breeze, and studded with water hyacinths. All kinds of craft ply these waters ferrying cargoes of spice, rice, nuts, coir (coconut fibre), copra (dried coconut) and people.

Day 11 – Day 13 Kerala Beach Stay

Kovalam Beach At Dusk

Kovalam Beach

A group of three crescent shaped bays and coves known to have some of the best beaches in India. Kovalam is divided by its many bays and the landscape has formed sandy crescents with headlands to each end, the most popular being the Lighthouse Beach. Behind the beaches are shady coconut groves and a maze of alleyways linking local shops, guesthouses and restaurants beneath the coconut palms.

The beaches of Kovalam have particularly shallow water during the Winter Season from October – April. It is possible to go in to the sea for up to 100 meters at waist height in certain places.

Marari Beach

If you prefer a quiet end of tour beach stay, the exclusive beach resorts of Marari is very conveniently located near the Kerala backwaters near Alleppey. Soft sandy beaches spread out for many miles and are completely deserted except for a few isolated fishing villages.

Poovar Beach

An idyllic location at the meeting point of a backwater, river and lagoon near Kovalam. Very much the place to head for a 'get away from it all' type of beach holiday.
